

CREATIVE RECREATION

FALL 2017

The urban explorer is driven by adventure and the metropolis they find themselves in.

For Fall 2017, Creative Recreation launches new Men's and Women's collections built for the journey between sunrise and sunset. Driven by the idea that a concrete jungle can be equally filled with as much adventure as the woodlands, the collection infuses an equal balance of vibrancy and neutrality to birth a new direction of urban exploration.
